

K-Love has drastically changed my thought of radio stations. They represent a station that is inspirational, and at the same time, friendly and welcoming. The effect of removing it from Austin would destroy any and all good thoughts of Christians toward secular radio. It has been such a great bonding agent between the Christians of Austin and secular radio. Please do not remove it.